

'A weekend off' inverted conditionals

Complete each sentence with your own ideas. Ensure you write the sentence in full. Don't forget to use a comma to separate the 'if' clause from the conditional clause.

Try to vary the modal verbs in your sentences to highlight the likelihood of various actions.

- 1) Were the parents' schedule less busy, they would/could/might spend more time with their children
- 2) Were their children teenagers, they would have more time to themselves.
- 3) Had the author known what her parents were planning, she
- 4) Were the children only going to the theme park for the afternoon,
- 5) Were there to be no ground rules
- 6) Had the grandparents only taken one of the children
- 7) Had we not told the children's grandparents not to buy them too many sweets
- 8) Had the parents not been so tired
- 9) Had they chosen a different movie
- 10) Had they realised how tired they were