

CPE Test Book 1 Test 2 - Extra Training

Part 1

Use the extra words from part 1 to complete the sentences:

1. During the Vietnam war thousands of American men were called to serve in the military.
 - a. on
 - b. up
 - c. in
2. She decided to wear a pink satin dress to the interview.
 - a. arresting
 - b. catching
 - c. fetching
3. Undergoing a ten-week basic training course is practice for anyone wanting to join the US army.
 - a. native
 - b. standard
 - c. typical
4. He was excited to see his cousins again but when he saw them he all shy for some reason.
 - a. came over
 - b. gave out
 - c. set up
5. The paramedics did their best to save him but he was dead on arrival at the hospital.
 - a. predicted
 - b. entered
 - c. pronounced
6. They considered his political ideas to be too for the group and his membership was revoked.
 - a. basic
 - b. radical
 - c. central
7. It suddenly on me that he had been lying to me the whole time.
 - a. started
 - b. dawned
 - c. birthed
8. We thought we'd put the issue to, but it was brought up again at the next meeting.
 - a. sleep
 - b. bed
 - c. ground

Part 2

Film music

Any mention the movie Star Wars instantly triggers the resounding opening bars of the film score, which signals the presence of the enemy. But can you to mind who wrote the music?

According the legendary film director Orson Wells, music for half the work in a movie, mostly without the audience knowing the composer's name. The cruellest part of it for the composer is that, in a good film, that is how it be. If the art of dressing well is to intents and purposes to dress in a way that others do not your elegance, the art of a great music is to fuse so perfectly with what is the screen that audiences are unconsciously into the mood of the movie. this reason, even great movie music very little recognition to composers.

Key

Part 1:

1. b - up - be called up to the military
2. c - fetching - a fetching dress = an attractive dress
3. b - standard - standard practice = what people normally do
4. a - came over all + adjective = to react in a specific way to a situation
5. c - pronounced - be pronounced dead = a doctor officially announces and records your death
6. b - radical - radical political ideas
7. b - dawned - if something dawns on you, you realise it is happening.
8. b - bed - put something to bed - solve/resolve an issue/debate

Part 2

Film music

Any mention OF the movie Star Wars instantly triggers the resounding opening bars of the film score, which signals the presence of the enemy. But can you CALL to mind who wrote the music?

According TO the legendary film director Orson Wells, music ACCOUNTS for half the work in a movie, mostly without the audience EVEN knowing the composer's name. The cruellest part of it for the composer is that, in a good film, that is how it SHOULD be. If the art of dressing well is to ALL intents and purposes to dress in SUCH a way that others do not NOTICE your elegance, the art of a great music SCORE is to fuse so perfectly with what is ON the screen that audiences are unconsciously SUCKED into the mood of the movie. FOR this reason, even great movie music BRINGS very little recognition to composers.